Rochdale Town Centre Management Company

ROCHDALE METROPOLITAN BOROUGH COUNCIL

Welcome!

We've put together this events guide to help you to make the most of your visit to Rochdale town centre this Christmas.

There's a host of entertainment throughout the festive season with lots of great shops and award winning bars and restaurants. And remember, parking is free after 3pm every day and all day Saturday and Sunday on Council car parks.

Rochdale Town Centre Management and Rochdale Council are committed to supporting Rochdale businesses and hope that you can show your support too and Shop Local this festive period, for every £1 you spend with a local, independent business, between 50p-70p circulates back into your local economy. Shopping locally supports local traders, their suppliers and the people they depend upon to run their businesses. Buying locally boosts your local economy, rebuilding confidence in the community, enabling local businesses to grow.

You can reward yourself for shopping locally with a Love Rochdale Card. It's free to sign up, so visit loverochdale.co.uk today, and start making the most of what's on your doorstep.

Christmas Lights Switch On

Saturday 16th November

Parade starts at 4.00pm at the top of Yorkshire Street.

Taking Christmas back to what it should be! Magical lantern parades made by children, choirs, street theatre with trapeze performances from Skylight Circus. Come and meet one of Rochdale's newest ambassadors, Katie McGlynn, our very own star of Waterloo Road and Coronation Street who will be helping to push that final button and flood us in Christmas cheer.

Boroughwide | Christmas Lights Switch On Events

Heywood Town Centre - Saturday 16th November 5.30pm
Middleton Town Centre – Saturday 16th November 6.00pm
Littleborough Town Centre – Saturday 23rd November 5.30pm

Father Christmas & Reindeer Parade

Sunday 1st December at 12-3.00pm

This festive event returns to Rochdale town centre for 2013. Father Christmas will parade down Yorkshire Street in his sleigh, pulled by his trusty reindeer and followed by a brass brand playing Christmas carols, entertaining street theatre and local school children. After the parade is finished on the Butts meet Father Christmas himself and feed the reindeer in their pen. Children's rides and Christmas music will add to the day's entertainment.
